Core & Main Names Two New Executive Leaders

Two newly created roles increase bench strength in finance and IT

ST. LOUIS, March 15, 2021—Core & Main LP, a leading distributor of waterworks and fire protection products in the U.S., has promoted Robyn Bradbury to vice president of financial planning and analysis, and investor relations, and Carrie Busbee to chief information officer.

“Robyn and Carrie are exceptional, dynamic leaders who have been instrumental in the growth of Core & Main,” said Mark Witkowski, chief financial officer of Core & Main. “They have an unwavering commitment to ensuring that our people and our systems enable business agility. Their focus on customers, internal and external, is fundamental in supporting our growth strategy.”

As vice president, Bradbury will continue to lead investor relations, managing all communications with our debt investors. During her decade-plus tenure with Core & Main, Bradbury has led all aspects of financial planning & analysis, including the preparation of operating budgets, long-range forecasts, internal reporting and branch financial support, as well as the Company’s incentive compensation program. More recently Bradbury has taken on additional responsibilities including business intelligence and pricing analytics.

Busbee joined Core & Main in 2018. Under her leadership, Core & Main’s IT department has focused on laying the groundwork to realize competitive advantages through technology advancements in industrial distribution. Her focus on technical infrastructure helped the Company counter the disruption of COVID-19, jump-starting planned digital solutions that enabled business continuity for an essential workforce. In her new role as CIO, Busbee will continue to foster a customer-oriented culture, with a proven track record of empowering her team to deliver solutions that enable growth while maintaining stable and secure systems.
